

“game” vs. “match”

Game: mostly used by americans; a friendly match, unofficial.

Match: mostly used by british; an organized “game” of an official competition.

“A match is an organized game of tennis, soccer, cricket, or other sport.”
- Collins Cobuild Advanced Dictionary of American Dictionary